

BEAN, KINNEY & KORMAN APPOINTS JERRY WILLIAM BOYKIN OF COUNSEL TO THE FIRM

ARLINGTON, VA, October 1, 2009—Bean, Kinney & Korman, Arlington’s largest and most established law firm, announced today the addition of Jerry William Boykin as Of Counsel to the firm. Boykin has been practicing law for more than 30 years. In his new position with Bean Kinney, he will represent clients in civil litigation matters. Mr. Boykin also has notable experience representing clients in corporate matters, commercial real estate, mergers and acquisitions and other transactional work.

“We are extremely pleased to have Jerry join our firm,” said Leo Fisher, managing shareholder of Bean, Kinney & Korman. “He enhances our roster of experienced trial lawyers and has a proven track record of successfully advising growing businesses and their principals, with a solid corporate and government contractor client base.”

Prior to joining Bean Kinney, Boykin most recently practiced law at Womble, Carlyle, Sandridge & Rice. He has significant experience as a business litigator in federal and state courts throughout the country with emphasis on complex civil litigation, including antitrust, restaurant franchise matters, copyright and trademark infringement, energy-related litigation, constitutional questions and business torts, such as breach of fiduciary duty.

Boykin has a B.S. from Eastern Michigan University and a J.D. from Case Western Reserve University School of Law. He is admitted to the District of Columbia Bar, the Virginia Bar, the New York Bar and U.S. Supreme Court, and is admitted to practice before the U.S. Courts of Appeals for the Second, Fourth and District of Columbia Circuits; U.S. District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Virginia and the Southern, Eastern, Northern and Western Districts of New York; and U.S. Claims Court. Boykin is a member of the District of Columbia, Virginia State, Fairfax, Virginia and American Bar Associations, as well as a member of the Virginia Trial Lawyers Association.
