

Fairfax Bar Association's Paralegal Section

Valentine's Day Project

To benefit the Fairfax Girls' and Boys' Probation Houses

Happy New Year! The FBA Paralegal Section, in conjunction with the Fairfax Law Foundation, is collecting monetary donations for the Paralegal Section's annual Valentine's Day Project, now benefiting both the Fairfax Girls' and Boys' Probation Houses. Based on the generous support of our members, the project was expanded last year to include the young men of the Fairfax Boys' Probation House. New books (hard and paperback) will be purchased for 12 young women and 24 young men, as well as journals, toiletries, and sundries. Please consider donating funds to this project. In the alternative, purchase a favorite book from your high school years for another young person to enjoy. We believe that books can change lives and open new worlds to young minds!

Please send your tax deductible contribution to the FBA Office, 4110 Chain Bridge Road, Suite 216, Fairfax, Virginia. Checks should be made payable to the Fairfax Law Foundation. Donations will be collected from now until Monday, February 22, 2010. You are also welcome to purchase new hard or paperback books of your choice. If you plan to do so, please contact Tina Fewell, at tfewell@shoun.com, or Joanne Randa, at jranda@cgglawyers.com, who can provide you with suggestions, if needed, and the required reading list provided by the facilities' teachers. Coordination will also enable us to avoid duplication.

A Section meeting will be held to assemble the gifts.
